

ALL I REMEMBER

I forgot you right away
The sun came out
And I began
To plant new flowers in my yard
They dried my tears
Before they ran

And all I remember
Is a roadtrip we made
And it sucked
From the beginning
Until the end

I tried to write you that I cared
But what came out was unprepared
Like mother's words from overseas
It wrote with me unceasingly

And all I remember
Is the fights we had
About unimportant things like
How to feed a cat
