

BORED

I'm trying to get some stucture in my life
But all I'm getting is a big confusion
The man I love is 12 hours away
At least we can skype
But what a weird solution

I'm horny and bored
What is this all for
Some-one is missing
And I know it's just you

I'm trying to write songs
But it's always the same
All I can think of
Is that you're away
I should start writing constructions
For beamers of mankind
I'm absolutely positive
Then I wouldn't mind

I'm horny and bored
What is this all for
Some-one is missing
And I know it's just you

I know it is you
I know it is you
