

DOWN AT THE PORT

You belong to me
I belong to you
This is what I always thought

My whole family
Said we're meant to be
Sharing the same spot

What the others thought of me
I ignored
Until your fatherstrangledme
Down at the port

You became what i
Always feared to be
Hopeless and unbearable

Like a desperate spy
You thought your friends and i
Were just using you
Terrible

What the others thought of me
I ignored
Until your fatherstrangledme
Down at the port

Hmm...
Hmm...
Hmm...
Hmm...

What the others thought of me
I ignored
Until your fatherstrangledme
Down at the port
Until your fatherstrangledme
Down at the port
