

ESCAPE

I'm too nervous to talk
Everything I say
Somehow must have lost its way
Through my thoughts

I should have said
I'm going for a walk
But it's too late now
All left to do is

Escape
Without being noticed at all
Just burn the tape
Put the ashes in the wall

To escae
Without being noticed at all
Just burn the tape
Put the ashes in the wall

I'm too drunk to ride my bike
I put up the speed to keep the balance
I hit a car, parked on the side
My head's on the windshield
Just another challenge

To escape
Without being noticed at all
Just burn the tape
Put the ashes in the wall

To escape
Without being noticed at all
Just burn the tape
Put the ashes in the wall
