

FOR A WHILE

For a while, for a while
For a while I thought
That nothing tore us apart
That nothing tore us apart

I don't think you can be serious
Change your clothes in front of me
And I know you do it just for teasing

For a while, for a while
For a while I thought
That nothing tore us apart
That nothing tore us apart

Longer phone calls
Playing innocent
You're different, I expected that
Still can't handle all that having me to say the things you're planning

Come back
Come back
Come back
Come
I've had enough

For a while, for a while
For a while I thought
That nothing tore us apart
That nothing could tear us apart