

HOME

I thought I couldn't write a song for you
I was afraid of being too confused

I was lost somewhere
I was not supposed to be
But now I'm back
And it's nice to be home

Today I found a picture of you
And I didn't know the guy
Who then was you

I put it somewhere safe
So I could be sure
Our past cannot be taken from us
