

IGNORE ME

Remember that night when I caught your attention
You showed me precisely
A whole new dimension
Of what moments can do to fidelity
I'm impressed
Cheating must be your speciality

How can you just ignore me
After taking all my pride from me
I guess you are just performing
To escape from reality

How can you just ignore me
After taking all my pride from me
Look around you might have lost your
Sense of loyalty

From my side there was not the slightest intension
While you seemed to start up
Your lets-make-love-engine
You must have realized
I'm not into that
For I was like paralyzed
Thinking you gotta be mad

How can you just ignore me
After taking all my pride from me
I guess you are just performing
To escape from reality

How can you just ignore me
After taking all my pride from me
Look around you might have lost your
Sense of loyalty

I don't need your kind of man
Don't feel like being one of your numbers
I'm glad to be aware of the game you play
I better stay away from you

Go ahead, just ignore me
I don't need your attention
I see you're not even listening
Number six is standing next to me

Go ahead, just ignore me
I can't help to find your loyalty
I see you're not even listening
Fuck number six standing next to me
