

NOT LONG AGO

Who are you to tell me not to care
Who are you to tell me not to love you
Not to hold your hand and leave our traces in the sand
With all the good and bad that comes along

Who are you to tell me I don't care
Who are you to tell me I don't suffer
Hold my hand through desperate land
And soon we'll see the sorry end
And you will be alone with all your needs

Not long ago we were happy
Watching our hearts in the backyard playng
Hmmm...
