

NOW

It's time to leave this place behind
It's time to quit things I don't mind

Now the air is clear
Every door stands open

Now

You stole my keys before I left
And locked me out while I was doubting

Now the air is clear
Things have changed, I'm here

Now

I think I'm drifting from the spot
I love you more than I could handle

Tear me to the ground
Let me know I'm here

Now
