

O- O- OH

I'm walking home
It's light outside
The birds are singing
quite annoying

I look around
No-one there
They must have been more disciplined than I

I regret every word I said

O- o- oh

Afraid of all these days ahead

Why can't I be normal
And control myself?
Why don't I just learn
From my mistakes?

I find the keys
They match the lock
I'm impressed
And soon undressed

I drank too much
And again too fast
I should have learned from other times

O- o- oh

I regret every word I said

O- o- oh

Afraid of all these days ahead.

Why can't I be normal
And control myself?
Why don't I just learn
From my mistakes?

O- o- oh

O- o- oh

O- o- oh

O- o- oh...
