

OTHER REASONS

You told me you've been questioning
Our relationship
I can understand, I've had the same
But the reason for you to draw the line
Was only

That you were feeling lonely

Can't you admit there are other reasons
What do you want from me
Soon there'll be another season
I'll be back and we will see

You don't even know
What the future's gonna bring to you
I don't think I'm standing in its way
Soon you'll feel better
See everything differently
And then you're glad when I'm away

Can't you admit there are other reasons
What do you want from me
Soon there'll be another season
I'll be back and we will see

Don't try to protect me by hiding the truth
But make sure you're aware of
What you say and do
I'd rather have you honest and rude
Then pretending and making me feel
Like a fool

Can't you admit there are other reasons
What do you want from me
Soon there'll be another season
I'll be back and we will see
