

RUTH

I know you're intelligent
And extraordinary gorgeous
I know you've got that smile
That makes women fall from horses

Honest, kind and generous
Got the attitude of a feminist
The way you talk's phenomenal

Please just tell me anything
But the truth
I just can't stand it
My name is Ruth
My name is Ruth

Tell me that you've left a wife
With children six, or seven
Tell me things like you believe
That we all go to heaven
Tell me that you're ignorant
And never say I'm sorry
Tell me that you've killed a man
To destroy his glory

Please just tell me anything
But the truth
I just can't stand it
My name is Ruth
My name is Ruth

Please just don't tell me again
That you love me
You know I've got a man
And he is lovely
I really need to go now
Don't really wanna know how
You think 'bout that

Please just tell me anything
But the truth
I just can't stand it
My name is Ruth
My name is Ruth
